Burglars on Franklin Hill.

A daring burglar broke into several houses on Franklin Hill at an early hour Monday morning and stole valuables to the amount of about $300. The investigation by the police leads to the conclusion that a shrewd and skillful thief, known to the police of this town, Orange, Glen Ridge and Montclair as "the man with the small hand," and who has perpetrated a series of burglaries in these several towns and got away with between $2,000 and $3,000 worth of valuables, none of which have ever been found in the pawn shops and other places where thieves usually dispose of their goods did the work. There is now among the curios of the local police department a block of wood cut out of the door panel of Fred J. Ogden's house and also a similar block cut from a door panel in Dr. H. E. Richards house. The similarity of the two pieces point almost conclusively to being the same man's work. The sugar with which the holes were bored the door in Dr. Richards house is also in possession of the police. It was after midnight on Sunday night when Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Miller of No. 147 Franklin Street reached home from a journey out of town. They had retired but a short time when they were aroused by the vigorous barking of a house dog. A noise such as might be attributed to mice or rats gnawing wood was heard and the dog's agitation was thought to be due to some such cause. Next morning it was discovered that a thief had been around the premises and had bored holes through the outside cellar door and opened it and had started similar work on the door at the head of the cellar stairs and opening on to the first floor of the house. The vigilence of the house dog caused the thief to abandon his project of robbing the house. The thief then turned his attention to Samuel H. Clapt's residence on Franklin Hill and got in there and stole a silver sugar spoon which had been left on the dining table. The thief's visit to Mr. Clapt's house was premature, for the family had just moved in and things were not yet set to rights. At the residence of Dr. Harry E. Richards on Franklin Hill the burglar succeeded in making a valuable haul, the articles stolen amounting in value to about $300. Entrance was gained to Dr. Richards' through the door on the east side of the house. The articles stolen consisted of silverware, cut glass and table decanters.

Prosperous W. C. T. U.

At the fourteenth annual meeting of the Watsessing W. C. T. U. the president, Mrs. Pierce, read the crusade psalm, which was followed by prayer by Mrs. V. Seely. Mrs. Carlock sang "Higher Ground," and Rev. H. C. Thompson of the Ferry Church made an address and Rev. P. G. Blight of the Watsessing Methodist Church, gave a short talk. The report of the recording secretary, Mrs. M. G. Milliken showed the union to be in a prosperous condition.
